

Medical Health Camp

A team from St. Paul Medical Service, Egypt was performed a medical camp in Lutheran Health Care Bangladesh Hospital (LHCB) Dumki, Patuakhali on dated December 17, 2016. The camp was a daylong event and the team comprises individuals from Medical team: Nardine Moheb (Pediatician); Tamer Nabil (Internal medicine); Dr. Atef Wifky Tawfeek (Dentist); Fady Nabil (dental assistant) and support team: Bishoy Ramzy (camp registration); Marian Samir (camp logistician); Marina Adel (camp documentation) and Simon Bishara (camp organizer).

Lutheran Health Care Bangladesh (LHCB) has been the main inviter after their showing interest and pre announced about their arrival in the community. They work in three groups and attended around sixty three patients. They have taken activity pictures, hospital pictures, talked about LHCB service, its strength and other related issues.

LHCB was also organized a meeting for them with all the staffs and they shared their experiences and vision and also expressed deepest satisfaction for the arrangements.

Visit of Rev. Dr. Chandran Martin Paul

Rev. Dr. Chandran Martin Paul arrived in Dhaka on December 2, 2016 and attended in the LHCB Executive Board Meeting held on Viator Guest House, Banani; Dhaka at 3:30 PM. This was his last visit in the expired project and carry important on various aspects. He explained to LHCB Board about his objectivity of visiting LHCB and also actively participated on every agenda and requirements. He conveyed thanks and greetings to each member of ELCA and appreciated every effort of LHCB Board members and staff members.

On December 3, 2016 he started his journey for Dumki and reached there in the evening. He was received with warmest receptions by Dumki staff members and spent three days there. Attended as chief guest on the year end prize giving and cultural functions on day two in Dumki, participated in the department head meetings on day three and on the final day ended his stay by giving an unexpected gift to our Executive Director Mr. Pius Serao. He was awarded with ELCA Award for Management and Leadership. Executive Director appreciated the honor and also promised to serve with more dedication and vision.

Dr. Justine Baozandry also honored with a bouquet of flowers for her continuous dedicative and hardships services. She also conveyed her deepest thanks to all ELCA and LHCB members and beneficiaries. It was a good for LHCB that Dr. Justine agreed to work with LHCB in the new phase. At evening on the same day Rev. Dr. Chandran Martin Paul left dumki and on December 7, 2016 he board on flight to Chennai. Rev. Dr. Chandran Martin Paul's presence increases the hopes of every individual related to LHCB and made them enthusiast for future endeavor.

